

Chukkas a new thrill for TV cooks

■ Jessie Papain

WA's My Kitchen Rules contestants will swap aprons for some fancier attire as they prepare to attend this year's Polo in the Valley.

Secret Harbour couple Nev Groves and Kell Griffiths and Wanneroo mother and son duo Anna and Jordan Bruno will be special guests in the Telethon Adventurers marquee.

The event is one of the highlights on the social calendar and will be held at Duncraig Stud on April 3.

It will be a world away from the kitchen for the budding cooks, none of whom have seen the sport in the flesh.

"I've seen it on Pretty Woman," Groves joked.

Griffiths added: "It's a first for all of us. We are doing things we wouldn't have had the chance to do because of My Kitchen Rules. It's amazing."

Stomping the divots and drinking fine champagne are just two polo traditions the foursome are looking forward to.

For charity: My Kitchen Rules contestants Nev Groves, Kell Griffiths and Jordan and Anna Bruno are ready for Polo in the Valley. Picture: Iain Gillespie

But Jordan Bruno said he was most excited about observing the styles on show among the well-heeled guests.

"I'm expecting some fine fashion," he said. "I'm planning on wearing a classic white short-sleeved T-shirt and some fancy shorts."

The contestants found themselves overnight celebrities after the cooking series began airing last month.

They are often stopped on the street by fans wanting to take selfies with them and say the support from the public has been overwhelming.

Now it is their turn to give back by supporting the Telethon Adventurers, which is their cherry on top of an unforgettable experience.

"Telethon has been going on for years and years and it's something that is very close to our hearts," Anna Bruno said.

Griffiths said the show's contestants got to do a lot of things but the events that helped people and charities made everything worthwhile. "We are giving back the support we get from the public," she said.

If Your Child Is In Yrs 10-12

THEN THIS INNOVATIVE STUDY SKILLS
SEMINAR IS FOR THEM - APRIL SEMINARS 2016

"Amazing! It helped me a lot. I learnt so many ways to study better so that I could get top marks"

Noura - Langford Islamic College

"One of the best seminars..."